City of Gulf Shores Announces 2021 Summer Music at Meyer Park Lineup

Gulf Shores, Ala. – The City of Gulf Shores is excited to announce the 2021 summer lineup for the Music at Meyer Park concert series.

- June 17 – Radio Zydeco
With South Louisiana serving as a jumping-off point, Lafayette’s own Radio Zydeco cuts, twists, deconstructs and reassembles until they create a fusion of unorthodox sound. They bring an eclectic and relatable message into a music tradition rooted in a carefree attitude and good-time vibes.
- July 15 – Symone French and the Troullie
Symone French and the Troullie blend styles ranging from funk, rock and soul to create a sound that is truly unique and captivating. The Troupe has become a staple in the Mobile and Gulf Coast Music scene and lead singer Symone French delivers powerful, soulful vocals that are sure to move all listeners. They plan to release new music this year and to continue their active gig and tour schedule.
- August 19 – Modern Eldorados
The Modern Eldorados live show is more than just a concert; it's a musical experience dripping with history and full of excitement. The band was formed in 1996 as a vehicle for singer/songwriter Gretsch Lyle's original brand of classic country music. With the conviction of an old-time gospel preacher, Lyles delivers his unique brand of witty southern humor. When The Modern Eldorados take the stage, class is in session for a wildly entertaining lesson in authentic American honky-tonk.

All shows are FREE to the public and begin at 6 p.m. at Meyer Park, located at 400 E. 22nd Ave. The Blues Burger food truck will be onsite and the Coastal Alabama Business Chamber will be selling beverages at each event.
